Welcome and Call

It is good to be here with you this morning. It is great to know that Jesus gives His Holy Spirit to comfort us in our weariness, lift us in our burdens, and inspire us in the face of the challenges of our daily lives. He gives us food for our souls and joy for our spirit and love for our hearts. We are never alone or beyond the way of His presence. Let's be together this morning in worship to welcome Jesus Christ our giver of life.

For the bread of God is He who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.' John 6:33

Because they were like sheep without a shepherd; and He began to teach them many things. When it grew late, His disciples came to Him and said, 'This is a deserted place, and the hour is now very late; send them away so that they may go into the surrounding country and villages and buy something for them -selves to eat.' But He answered them, 'You give them something to eat.' They said to Him, 'Are we to go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread, and give it to them to eat?' And He said to them, 'How many loaves have you? Go and see.' When they had found out, they said, 'Five, and two fish.' Then He ordered them to get all the people to sit down in groups on the green grass. So they sat down in groups of hundreds and of fifties. Taking the five loaves and the two fish, He looked up to heaven, and blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to His disciples to set before the people; and He divided the two fish among them all. And all ate and were filled; and they took up twelve baskets full of broken pieces and of the fish. Those who had eaten the loaves numbered five thousand men." Mark 6:30-44

I. Releasing me from demanding to wondering

"When it grew late, His disciples came to Him and said, 'This is a deserted place, and the hour is now very late; send them away so that they may go into the surrounding country and villages and buy something for themselves to eat.' Mark 6:35-36

- When faced with great challenges are you more likely to demand from God or wonder and ask what He is doing and wanting of you?

II. Calling forth from who I am and what I do have

“But He answered them, ‘You give them something to eat.’ They said to Him, ‘Are we to go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread, and give it to them to eat?’ And He said to them, ‘How many loaves have you? Go and see.’ When they had found out, they said, ‘Five, and two fish.’ Mark 6:37-38

- Spend time this week in listing what gifts, strengths and abilities God has made you with and provided for in your life. Can you give thanks for these?
